STAT

Area of Coverage: China

Subjects Covered: Economic theory; economic policies; economic reconstruction; labor union; public finance.

Scholarship Evaluation: Popular consumption; written for workers

Review: This is a revised edition of a book having the same title which was published in 1950. Has new chapters on the trade-union law, labor insurance, economic and financial reconstruction (public finances, centralization of government finances, stabilization of prices, and readjustment of industry and commerce).

Of slight value to the research worker in view of more scholarly and intensive studies that have been published.
